

Dorcas Library in Prospect Harbor will serve as a visitor area with interpretive information, historic archives, wireless broadband access and a public restroom.

Bay view from meeting space in Dorcas Library

Vacant property for proposed visitor arrival area. The structure on this site was recently removed due to deteriorated condition. The site has a deep well and septic field.